

Cor. Broadway and Locust.
Mermod & Jaccard's
Great Cut Glass and Art Sale.

Cor. Broadway and Locust.
Mermod & Jaccard's
Great Cut Glass and Art Sale

Cor. Broadway and Locust.
Mermod & Jaccard's
Great Cut Glass and Art Sale.

Cor. Broadway and Locust.
Mermod & Jaccard's
Great Cut Glass and Art Sale.

Cor. Broadway and Locust.
Mermod & Jaccard's
Great Cut Glass and Art Sale.

GREAT SALE OF CUT GLASS THIS WEEK

OF THE WORLD RENOWNED | Dorflinger, Hawkes & Phoenix | MAKES, THE FINEST AND MOST BRILLIANT PRODUCED IN THE WORLD.

Call Quickly and Make Your Selections from This Famous Collection, Unequalled for Beauty of Cuttings, Brilliance and Low Prices, Guaranteed Such at

MERMOD & JACCARD'S, Cor. BROADWAY and LOCUST.

Fine Cut Glass Carafes ..... $2.75 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Decanters ..... $5 to $35
Fine Cut Glass Cheese Dishes ..... $4.50 to $28
Fine Cut Glass Colognes ..... $2.50 to $14
Fine Cut Glass Whisky Jugs ..... $7 to $25
Fine Cut Glass Vases ..... $5 to $48
Fine Cut Glass Flower Bowls ..... $2.25 to $45
Fine Cut Glass Oils and Vinegars ..... $1.75 to $7

Fine Cut Glass Tumblers ..... $4.50 to $35 doz
Fine Cut Glass Champagnes ..... $7.50 to $33 doz
Fine Cut Glass Sherries ..... $5 to $28 doz
Fine Cut Glass Goblets ..... $7.50 to $53 doz
Fine Cut Glass Liquors ..... $5 to $28 doz
Fine Cut Glass Finger Bowls ..... $4.75 to $65 doz
Fine Cut Glass Claret ..... $6.50 to $40 doz
Fine Cut Glass Lemonades ..... $18 to $35 doz

Fine Cut Glass Bon Bons ..... $2.50 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Punch Bowls ..... $25 to $100
Fine Cut Glass Ice Cream Dishes ..... $18 to $40
Fine Cut Glass Salad Bowls ..... $6.50 to $45
Fine Cut Glass Olive Dishes ..... $2.50 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Celery Trays ..... $7.50 to $16
Fine Cut Glass Spoon Holders ..... $4.50 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Ice Tubs ..... $17 to $25

Fine Cut Glass Table Salts ..... $1.50 to $5
Fine Cut Glass Bells ..... $2.75 to $7
Fine Cut Glass Knife Rests ..... $3 to $5
Fine Cut Glass Ladies ..... $8 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Ice Cream Knives ..... $8 to $11
Fine Cut Glass Salad Servers ..... $10 to $13
Fine Cut Glass Puff Boxes ..... $7 to $12
Fine Cut Glass Candelsticks ..... $5 to $25

Lowest Priced House in America for Fine Diamonds, Watches, Clocks and Silverwares. Send for Catalogue. Cor. Broadway and Locust.

A DECISION POSTPONED.

KANSAS PROHIBITION CASES BEFORE THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

The Cause of Postponement Announced by the Chief Justice—Report of Gen. Gibbons, Commanding the Department of the Columbia—An Associate Justice Rebutted—Going Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—A motion was made to-day in the United States Supreme Court to advance three habeas corpus cases growing out of the arrest of the proprietors of original package establishments in Kansas for violating the prohibition liquor law. The point raised is that it is necessary for Kansas to re-enact its prohibition law after the passage of the original package law by Congress in order for it to become of effect against the selling of original packages. The Chief Justice announced that the court would not decide the motion until the vacancy caused by Justice Miller's death had been filled.

Gen. Gibbons's Report.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Secretary of War has received the annual report of Brig.-Gen. John Gibbons, commanding the Department of the Columbia. He reports that the Indians of the extreme Northwest are in a perfectly peaceful condition, and says he thinks they will remain so indefinitely. It is the opinion of the Indians that the constant encroachments of the whites and their acts of injustice. He says in regard to courts martial:

"Supposed irregularities in court-martial proceedings have recently given rise to a good deal of comment throughout the country. It is the opinion of the War Department that it has been necessary to take from department commanders the power to order general courts and trials. It is only in the division of the Columbia that the opinion of the court martial that this would be a great mistake, would not be in favor of the administration. The court martial would simply add one more to the disadvantages of the present division organization."

He recommends, however, certain improvements in the organization of the divisional justice as follows: To authorize the Secretary of War to establish a schedule of punishments for cases of desertion, and to make such schedule conform in their sentences; by requiring a strict compliance with the law in convening a strict court; to establish a court martial of a judge and two other officers, who should be similar to corresponding civil courts.

Gen. Gibbons reports the troops in his division to be in a good condition, and gives it as his opinion that the various measures taken to discipline the troops of deserters will result beneficially.

"No step," he says, "will produce better results than the plan to get better districts by sending out the men to districts rather than in the crowded cities."

He reports that in his department as being in a condition to defend and send the men to the front, not only better than that of traders, but that the enlisted men are beginning to realize some of the benefits of the service. The 1st U. S. Cavalry has a seaworthy vessel for the transportation of stores across the mouth of the Columbia River, and has been in service until recently when the contract for that service was disapproved. Since the stoppage of that steamer, the garrison at Fort Canby has been cut off from the ordinary table supplies.

The Electrical Execution Law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—The first motion to secure final action from the Supreme Court of the United States on the question of the constitutionality of the New York electrical execution law was made in the Supreme Court to-day. It was moved that the case be advanced and set down for hearing on the 1st of November. The sole reason in this case is that the Kemmler execution demonstrated that killing by electricity is a cruel and unusual punishment, which is prohibited by the Constitution of the United States. After counsel had made the motion Chief Justice Fuller assented.

"This distinction—between that case and the case of Kemmler," he was the counsel, who was then announced.

"Yes sir. This distinction—that the carrying out of the sentence in the Kemmler case was not scientifically successful and the punishment itself was not fit, will be decided to be not a proper method."

Chief Justice: "We will take the papers."

An Associate Justice Rebutted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—Judge A. A. Freeman, appointed "from Tennessee" to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, and who lives across the Potomac in Virginia, is leading the straight-out faction of the Republican party in W. H. F. Lee's district to prevent Republicans supporting F. B. Moore, the independent candidate. Judge Freeman's action is severely criticized by Maj. Hines, chairman of the Republican convention which decided to nominate in that district who should be the questionable propriety of members of the judiciary taking active part in political contests. The decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, serving in New Mexico and interfering in a Virginia fight.

Going Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Democratic Central Committee of the District of Columbia has opened headquarters one block from the Treasury, and furnished a polling place for all Democrats who wish to go home to vote. Chairman Hoyle and Secretary Brown yesterday issued certificates of transportation to two hundred and twenty voters, mostly from Western States. The local committee states that it does this work because no provision was made for it by the Democratic Congressional Committee.

The World's Fair Lady Managers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—Secretary Windom to-day determined to call a meeting of the lady managers of the World's Fair to be held in Chicago, Nov. 13. They will receive a letter from a Democratic newspaper man here from a Missouri Democratic official in pre-

BENJAMIN F. BUTLER.

HE VISITS ST. LOUIS AND SPEAKS ON CHANGE.

A Glowing Tribute to the Commerce and Manufacturers of the West—St. Louis as a Manufacturing Center—Imports Omnipotent in the Silver Bill—The McKinley Bill.

This morning Gen. Benjamin F. Butler of Massachusetts arrived in the city on his way from Colorado to the East. He spent the morning in his private car, and received a number of his friends. At 12:30 James Campbell, who is interested in several business ventures in Colorado with the Ex-Governor of Massachusetts, called upon him and drove him to the Merchants' Exchange. There he was received by Ex-President E. O. Stanard, who in the absence of Vice-President Marcus Bercham, greeted him on behalf of the Exchange. He spent some time in the Secretary's office renewing old acquaintances and making new ones.

Gen. BUTLER'S ADDRESS.

At 1 o'clock he was escorted to the rostrum, leaning on the arm of Gov. Stanard. The weight of years evidently oppressed him seriously. His step was slow and uncertain, his voice was tremulous, but he gathered strength as he proceeded. The famous cook in his eye was not nearly so pronounced as formerly, but the right hand still drops perceptibly. Gov. Stanard stepped to the rostrum, rapped for order and said that he wished to introduce Gen. E. F. Butler of Massachusetts, as though as a matter of fact he needed no introduction to an American audience. Gen. Butler then stepped to the rostrum.

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the American party, but as citizens. One and all are deeply interested in what is best for the country. I regard St. Louis as an excellent example of the best that our country has to offer."

"Gentlemen of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange—I will speak to you not as members of the

AMERICAN EXCHANGE BANK,

N. E. Corner Third and Pine Streets.

PETER NICHOLSON, President.
ORSON HEWIT, Vice-President.
WALKER HILL, Cashier.Capital full paid..... $500,000.00
Surplus and undivided profits. $295,000.00
Average deposits..... $1,000,000.00

DIRECTORS:

Ephron Catlin, F. W. Humphrey,
Alonzo C. Church, J. B. M. Kehler,
Or. Hewit, Geo. W. Updike,
Daniel S. Holmes.Sam'l M. Kennard,
J. B. C. Lucas,
Alvah Mansur,
Peter Nicholson,
F. G. Niedringhaus,
John W. Turner,

FINANCIAL.

Sam'l. A. Gaynor. John H. Blessing.

GAYLORD, BLESSING &amp; CO.

307 OLIVE ST.

DEALERS IN HIGH-GRADE BONDS.

Suitable for Savings Banks and Trust Funds.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

We are connected by private wire with New York and Chicago, and are prepared to execute orders for the purchase and sale of railroad stocks and bonds for cash or margin; also grain and provisions. Our facilities for obtaining quick and reliable information are unexcelled.

GAYLORD, BLESSING & CO.,
307 Olive St.L. A. COQUARD,
INVESTMENT BROKER

194 North Third Street.

Send for our descriptive circulars, bought and sold outright or on commission; mining stock handled on strict commission basis. Will be pleased to serve you.

FOR SALE.

500 shares American Brake Co.

W. C. LITTLE, SCOTT & CO.,
Members New York Stock Exchange, Chamber of Commerce Building, 8d and Pine.

Desire to sell stocks, mining stocks, mining stocks, etc. Commission orders in stocks and bonds at New York and grain and provisions, etc. Also to sell stocks, mining stocks, etc. Directly executed by direct private wires from our office to those markets.

GEO. M. HUSTON & CO.,
Bonds and Stocks, 805 Pine St.

Monthly quotations circulars mailed free. For details see sale in Sunday paper.

MONEY.

New York Stock Quotations.

Corrected daily by Whilaker &amp; Hodgen, successors to Matthews &amp; Whilaker, bond and stock brokers, 300 North Fourth street, St. Louis, Mo.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 27.

STOCKS.

Opening. Highest. Lowest. Closing.

Receipts and Shipments of Leading Articles, at St. Louis.For the twenty-four hours ending Monday, Oct. 27, 1890, and corresponding day in 1889, as reported by the Merchants' Exchange:

ARTICLES. Receipts by River and Rail. Shipments by River and Rail.

1890. 1890. 1890.

Fisher. 5,711. 8,795. 8,091. 13,298

Corn. 8,870. 9,800. 10,000. 12,183

Oats. 2,880. 3,046. 3,046. 3,625

Barley. 18,000. 37,300. 3,738. 3,970

Deli. bulk. 1,667. 2,297. 5,256

Corn. meal. 7. 17. 1. 1

Cotton. 2,616. 8,211. 2,622. 289

Cottonseed. 4,342. 2,887. 1,994. 4,000

Oats. 1,484. 1,484. 1,484. 1,484

Pork. Jan. 12,229. 13,215. 13,176

Lard. 1. 65. 1. 65. 1. 65. 1. 65

CHICAGO—Wheat—Closing: Oct. 27—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 21st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

June 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

July 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Aug. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Sept. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Oct. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Nov. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Dec. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Jan. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Feb. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Mar. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

Apr. 1st—Dec. 1, 100c. 100c. 100c. 100c.

May

THE
Delicatessen Lunch Rooms,
716 N. Broadway, 116-118 N. 4th St.,
718 Olive St., 124 Olive St.

CITY NEWS.

There is not a department in Crawford's immense business house in which there are not special and telling reductions this week, so as to condense stocks preparatory to the holiday trade. The biggest importations of toys and fancy goods ever brought to St. Louis at one time and for handling by one concern will soon be coming in, as Crawford's buyers are sweeping the Eastern markets clean of bargains in the interests of Crawford's trade, which tops over that of every other house in St. Louis as the Eiffel Tower dwarfs a town pump.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
Corner of 9th and Olive streets. Set of teeth, $3.

PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsmore, 61 Pine St.

TIRED OF HIS TRUST.

Why the Business Agent of the Farmers' Alliance Exchange Co. Will Resign.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—Last July, C. A. Tyler was appointed business agent of the Kansas Farmers' Alliance Exchange Co., and opened offices here. Since then, he avers, two or three of the Directors have been doing everything in their power to oppose his plan of conducting the business of the Exchange on a basis of co-operative plan for all members of the Farmers' Alliance in Kansas. Mr. Tyler says that he has been asking to resign his position, and of course, the men who have brought him in, and claims the best of judgment in his course. Dr. Dinsmore, Dr. Dinsmore did not consult the directors and executive committee on matters of business which he thinks are involved in the exchange plan. Dr. Dinsmore will probably be removed to Kansas City, Kan. Mr. Tyler says his enemies have continually harassed him until the climax is now reached.

On Nov. 1 he will step down and out of the position as business agent, and then the fun is likely to begin. An exchange in opposition to the Farmers' Alliance Exchange Co. will soon be started by the dissenting members, and it is more than likely that one will be started immediately, with Mr. Tyler in charge. The exchange plan, however, will probably be removed to Kansas City, Kan. Mr. Tyler claims that he lost money by taking the position, and that he has been promised a salary verbally promised him. He declares that he will forever oppose the schemes of the directors, which are intended only to make money for themselves.

Buy Your Clothing at Our House.

A very complete stock of men's, youth's and boys' clothing is offered for sale in our clothing department. Special attention has been paid to the making of this clothing, and low prices prevail.

MILLS &amp; AVERILL,

S. E. Cor., Broadway and Pine.

THE NEW TAILOR.

A Servant Girl Experiences It Effects in a Peculiar Way.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 27.—A servant girl in this city has experienced the effect of the new tariff in a peculiar way. For some time she has been saving her wages for the purpose of buying a set of false teeth. Thinking she had sufficient money she called upon the dentists and found that the price was going up 25 per cent. The dentist explained this by saying that the rates had been raised by the new duties on porcelain stock for teeth, and pins for fastening them to the plates. The girl will have to work a couple of months longer before she can get the teeth.

Great cut-glass sale this week at Mermel & Jaccard's, cor. B'way and Locust. See their lovely goods and low prices.

The Knights' Power Disappearing.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 27.—The order of the Knights of Labor in Detroit has received its death-blow. When the other organizations deserted to their trades, the shoemakers stood alone, but the Knights held fast, and when nothing else could, Saturday, the leaders of the shoemakers declared that the order no longer answered their purposes, and that it was time for a new union. Goldwater, Gotikan and other rabid anti-Knights have sprung the trade union idea, and while it is not yet clear, it may not be long before it will go to the Knights in that branch of trade at least. The failure of the strike led to the first breath of disappearance.

How to Study.

Prof. N. M. Whelby will lecture to the Alumni Association of the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, at 412 and 414 South Sixth street, this evening, on the subject of "How to Study."

Two Carloads of Lucious Peas.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 27.—The largest cargo of French peas that ever left this city went out Friday over the Queen & Crescent, Mobile & Ohio and Chicago & Alton roads bound for Chicago. Two freight cars were filled with carloads of peas, which had arrived on the steamship Federation. The success of this stroke of enterprise is likely to lead to a large import and distribution trade here.

For Shirts and Underwear Come to the Globe. Strictly all-wool scarlet and natural undyed garments, 75c; heavy all-wool camel's hair, $1, $1.50 and $1.60; fancy striped merino, 75c to $1.50. We also carry the finest imported merinos, Arabian Dece, Wright's Hair Derby Ribbed Underwear and Hosiery manufactured. Boys' hamels, 60c to $1.50; finest line of cashmere overgarments, $1.50 to $2.50; regular $1.50 men's of P. K. Boston dress shirts, 75c. GLOBE, 703 to 715 Franklin av.

Two in the Hand.

James A. Ross, Wm. Johnston and Joseph Hall were taken to Jefferson City this morning by a deputy sheriff. The men will each serve two years in the Penitentiary, having entered guilty pleas. The trial was had before the Court last Friday—Ross to the charge of forgery in the third degree and the negroes to grand larceny. Three other self-confessed felons are now in jail awaiting transportation.

GO to John E. Muirfield, broker, 206 North Third street, Grains, provisions, stocks and bonds. Commission one-eighth.

A Superb Album.

While a 14-year-old colored boy, named John Porter, was handling a revolver at Henry Miller's, Twelfth and Olive streets, yesterday afternoon, the weapon was accidentally discharged. The ball entered Porter's left hand, inflicting a serious wound, which was dressed at the Dispensary.

A Baptist Revival.

BONNIE TALES, Mo., Oct. 27.—A religious revival has been in progress at the Baptist Church here for two weeks past. The services are conducted by Dr. Dorn and Fortune, who are largely attended, and it is estimated that much good has been done.

The Middlebury Town Co. of Middlebury, Ky., is distributing free an album which is a work of art in every sense of the word. It contains exquisite views of the city, Cumberland Gap, etc. Mr. Alex. A. Arthur, president of the company, is to be congratulated for furnishing such an attractive book.

A Baptist Revival.

BONNIE TALES, Mo., Oct. 27.—A religious revival has been in progress at the Baptist Church here for two weeks past. The services are conducted by Dr. Dorn and Fortune, who are largely attended, and it is estimated that much good has been done.

The chief dependence, Louis, Mo., sudden ends in Dr. Ball.

THE PLOT MISCARRIED.
AND THERE WAS NO GENERAL FIGHT AT THE DIXON-MURPHY BATTLE.

Now the Schemers to Rob the Colored Boy of His Victory Was Frustrated.—Sullivan May Write the Winner of the Jackson-Slavina Bill for Recreations—General Sporting News.

PROVIDE N.C.E.—P. L., Oct. 27.—There were not many in the crowd who were packed into the Gladstone Club rooms last Thursday night to witness the Dixon-Murphy fight who realized how near it came to a free fight and perhaps murder. But it is a fact that there was a well-defined plot to prevent Dixon from winning. The plot was not carried out was due partly to the vigilance of the referee and partly to the idea which many entertained until the last round that Murphy was holding back until Dixon should exhaust himself. As was stated on the night of the fight, everybody wondered at Murphy's apparent inability to cope with Dixon. It had been admitted everywhere that Murphy was the harder hitter of the two men, and when he stood back on the defensive throughout the fight the knowing ones held their peace and awaited developments. Dixon himself was as puzzled as those outside of the ring. He had anticipated the hardest battle of his life, and instead found a man who was less trouble than an amateur. He could not account for it, and was consequently not prepared to meet an sudden onslaught. He did not dare let himself loose until thirty-five rounds had been fought. Then he began to realize that Murphy was not in as good a fix as had been reported, and he proceeded to finish him up in short order. At that time, too, it dawned upon Murphy's friends, who were pledged to make him "win or wrangle," that their favorite was a whipped man. Then it was that the plot became apparent. The men who were interested in the scheme are so prominent that their names would instantly be recognized by all New York and Boston sporting men.

Three or four worked their way to Dixon's corner, while others crowded over to the place where Murphy was hanging over the ropes, completely at Dixon's mercy. Those who were at Dixon's corner tried to pick a row with Tom O'Rourke, the colored lad's backer and second, at the same time one of the party rapped Dixon on the shins with a big black jack and another hit him on the head with a leaded case. One man made a lunge at Dixon with an ugly knife, which was quickly snatched from him and the blow had been directed. Still another of the conspirators began to cut the ropes but was prevented by the referee. And then gave a blow to Tom, in an effort to bring a pair of pinchers, promising $50 if the instrument was brought within five minutes. Dixon's backer and second, however, had clung upon the shoulders of a fellow conspirator and was in the very act of shutting the gap when the referee, who had been watching the fight, but had not been able to see what was going on, came to the rescue. He had been yelling at Dixon, and some had even tried to climb over the ropes, but they were thrown down and the referee, who had been raised in the hope of breaking into the ring and saving Murphy. But the plot did not succeed, and the excitement of Murphy's weakness had not been made.

It is a fact that in the forty rounds which were fought, the two men were right.

Dixon, on the other hand, planted more than 200 distinct blows on Murphy's head and body, and the latter was not able to move a muscle. These blows do not include the shortening work of either man. Dixon had everything in his own way and won a clear victory.

JOHN L. MAY FIGHT AGAIN.—New York, Oct. 27.—Actor John L. Sullivan has become exceedingly fastidious in the matter of wearing apparel, and when he stepped out of a carriage at the Vanderbilt Hotel yesterday he looked for all the world like a modern Beau Brummel. Patent leather boots shone under a pair of bright brass goggles and a top hat. John was dressed in a tuxedo. A fancy waistcoat was partially covered by a three-buttoned cutaway coat, and under a white shirt he wore a white cravat which served as a place for the big fello's sapphire pin. Sullivan ate a hearty dinner and was in excellent humor when a reporter found him.

Weyhing's Way.—Justice Patterson, sitting for Judge Kenna, in the Gates Avenue Police Court yesterday, issued a warrant for the arrest of Gus Weyhing, the star pitcher of the Brooklyn Players' League Base Ball Club, says the New York Daily News. Weyhing, who was a regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it at the painted figure. So thoroughly firing after the first, and soon the handsome ceiling was entirely ruined.

Weyhing is a genuine all-round over 200 worth of damage to the ceiling, the main charge being that of malicious mischief.

Ward's, the regular attendant at Eastern Park throughout the season, and who is an ardent admirer of Weyhing's, is a pitcher who is hard to beat. Weyhing is a right-hander, and before this incident Piel was on terms of the greatest intimacy with the members of the entire team.

The statue figure of Cambrenus attracted the attention of a member of the party, and he suggested that Weyhing "try to put a sandbag on the statue, like the one at the Game of Golf." The suggestion caught the favor of the great pitcher's mind immediately, and the art of the strong man who prepared an impromptu sandbag for Weyhing, and had plentifully plastered with mustard and butter, and hurled it